Amended: January 8, 2014
Amended: May 1, 2023

ARTICLE I – NAME AND TERRITORIAL LIMITS

Section 1. This organization shall be known as the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals Alaska Chapter, hereinafter referred to as this Association, a non-profit corporation incorporated as such under the laws of the state of Alaska and chartered by the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals.

Section 2. The territorial limits of this Association shall be confined to the state of Alaska.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSES

Section 1. The objectives of this Association shall be:

- A. To promote the common business interests of those engaged in the sale of health, disability and related insurance products and services.
- B. To advance public knowledge for the need and benefit of the financial protection provided by health, disability and related insurance products and services.
- C. To promote the adoption and application of a high standard of ethical conduct in the health, disability and related insurance products and service industry.
- D. To provide and promote a program of continuing education and self-improvement for Association members.
- E. To increase the knowledge of members concerning the principles, functions and applications of health, disability and related insurance products and services.
- F. To promote education, legislation, regulation and practices which are in the best interest of the health, disability and related insurance industry in an effort to provide financial protection to the insuring public.

- G. To encourage adequate protection against the hazards of disability as part of a well-rounded health, disability and related insurance products and services program.
- H. To do such other things and to carry out such other programs so as to further the purposes of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional Alaska Chapter.

Section 2. This Association and its members recognize an obligation to present accurately, honestly and completely every fact essential to the client's decision as expressed in the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional Alaska Chapter Code of Ethics which is considered a part of these bylaws.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in this Association will be available under the following designations:

- A. Individual Members
- B. Life Members
- C. Associate Members

Section 2. An individual member may be any individual licensed by his/her state licensing authority for the sale of health, disability and related insurance products and services. Individual members may also include non-licensed individuals engaged in the distribution of health, disability and related insurance products and services such as, but not limited to, home office personnel and others engaged in the management and distribution of such products. Individual members who have paid their annual national, state and local dues will also be referred to as Active Members.

Section 3. Life membership may be granted when an active member has been in good standing for a minimum of ten (10) consecutive years and has: (1) attained age 65 and retired; or (2) becomes unable to work due to disability. Life members have the same rights and privileges as individual members. This association shall determine the amount of reduction of local chapter dues, if any. Life member status shall be automatically conferred when all qualifications are met and application is made and verified by the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals

Section 4. Associate membership may be granted when an individual is a member of another state or local chapter and would like to become a member of the Alaska chapter.

ARTICLE IV – NATIONAL AND STATE AFFILIATION

Section 1 This Association agrees to be bound by the bylaws of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals as adopted and amended.

Section 2. The Board of Directors shall provide for the prompt review, approval and forwarding of all reports required or requested by the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals.

Section 3. Insofar as possible, this Association shall be represented by its proper delegates, or their duly appointed alternates, at the annual meeting of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals.

ARTICLE V – DUES AND FINANCE

Section 1. Each active member of this Association shall pay local, state and national annual dues. Such annual dues shall be payable on the first day of the member's anniversary month as recorded by the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals. All dues shall be submitted to and through the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals. Any individual member more than sixty (60) days in arrears in payment of dues shall be dropped from the rolls as a member in good standing.

Section 2. The Board of Directors shall determine the amount of annual dues of this Association, subject to the ratification of at least three-fourths (3/4) of the local associations in the state, if applicable. This Association's dues may only be changed once a year and will be in effect from January 1 through December 31 each year. Not later than the fifteenth (15th) of September of each year, or a date specified by the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals, if this Association plans to increase or decrease its state chapter dues for the following calendar year, the President shall advise the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals in writing of the Board-approved dues for the following year.

Section 3. The fiscal year of this Association shall begin on the first day of July of each year.

Section 4. This Association's books of accounts shall be reviewed at each board meeting. The Board of Directors shall receive a report from the Treasurer with the prior months complete bank statement and the reconciliation of that statement. In addition the Treasurer shall prepare a Balance Sheet and Income Statement including the comparison to the board approved budget. With Board approval, an audit may be requested.

Section 5. The Board of Directors shall determine the official depository(ies) for Association funds and shall designate one or more Board members in addition to the Treasurer to sign or countersign checks or other documents for the disbursement of such funds.

ARTICLES VI – OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of this Association shall be: President, President-Elect, Immediate Past President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Member-at-Large.

Section 2. Each officer shall be an active member of this Association, and the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals.

Section 3. All officers shall serve without compensation

Section 4. All officers shall take office on the first day of July of each year following their election, and shall serve for a term of one year. (NABIP's officers take office on the first day of July of each year.)

Section 5. The office of Immediate Past President shall be filled automatically by the outgoing President. In the event there is no outgoing President, this office shall remain vacant.

Section 6. If the office of the President shall become vacant due to death, disability, resignation, or removal by due process, the President-Elect shall assume the office for its unexpired term and their term of President for the succeeding year and the office of President-Elect shall become vacant until the next regular election. If the office of President becomes vacant and there is no President-Elect, the order of succession shall be Secretary, Treasurer, and then the Member-at-Large.

Section 7. If the office of President-Elect shall become vacant due to death, disability, resignation, or removal by due process, or by succession to the Presidency under Article VI., Section 6, the President shall, within thirty (30) days of the effective date of vacancy, appoint a member of this Association in good standing to fulfill the duties of the office for its unexpired term. The appointment shall be subject to a three-fourths (3/4) vote of approval by the Board of Directors. The office itself shall remain vacant until the next regular or special election.

Section 8. If the offices of Secretary, Treasurer and/or Member-at-Large become vacant due to death, disability, resignation, recall or removal by due process, or by succession under Article VI., Section 6, the office(s) shall be filled by appointment by the President. The appointment shall be subject to a three-fourths (3/4) vote of approval of the Board of Directors and shall be only for the unexpired term of the office(s). Appointees shall assume the title and duties of the office(s).

Section 2. At least three (3) months prior to the date of the annual meeting, the President shall appoint a Nominations Committee. The duties of this committee shall be to solicit and receive nominations and to prepare a slate of candidates. The Nominations Committee shall have general charge of the election process including the preparation, distribution, collection and counting of ballots, and the reporting of results.

Section 3. The Nominations Committee shall prepare a ballot containing the names of all qualified nominees and distribute ballot materials to all active members at least one (1) month prior to the date of the annual meeting. The ballots shall be cast in person at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE X – COMMITTEES

Section 1. There shall be the following standing committees:

- A. Professional Development
- B. Legislation
- C. Membership
- D. Communications

Section 2. The President shall appoint the chairs and members of all special or ad hoc committees and task forces, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. The Board of Directors shall establish guidelines for all committees and task forces regarding usual duties, terms of office, and requirements for reports unless otherwise specified in these bylaws.

Section 4. The administration of the fiscal affairs of all standing, special and ad hoc committees and task forces are vested in the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI – RECALL AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Section 1. An officer, member of the Board of Directors, committee member or chair, or task force member or chair may be removed from office in the event of such acts of dishonesty, fraud, misrepresentation, or other reasonable cause as would prevent the effective performance of his/her duties.

Section 2. No elected officer or board member, or appointed committee member or chair, or appointed task force member or chair may be removed from office without a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 3. Notice of recall or removal may be sent by registered mail to the affected individual advising him/her of the action taken or about to be taken. Removal by due process requires notification prior to the vote for removal from office. The Board of Directors and/or twenty-five percent (25%) of this Association's membership can initiate recall. Recall can only be achieved by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Failure to achieve the required vote for removal will cause the immediate reinstatement of the recalled individual to office. Any appointee replacing the recalled officer shall also immediately be discharged.

Section 5. Any individual member of this Association shall lose all rights and privileges of office under this Association if his/her license to sell insurance is revoked or if he/she is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor.

ARTICLE XII – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Section 1. The current edition of "The Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure" (Sturgis) governs this Association in all parliamentary situations that are not provided for in the law or in its charter, bylaws or adopted rules.

ARTICLE XIII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments to these bylaws, if in conformity with the policy of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals, may be adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the active members of this Association present at any meeting of this Association, provided that written notice of the meeting and of the proposed amendment(s) shall have been given to the members at least one month prior to the meeting.

ARTICLE XIV – INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. This Association may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, provide for indemnification by this Association of any and all its Directors or officers or former Directors or officers against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty and to such matter as shall be settled by agreement predicated on the existence of such liability for negligence or misconduct.

ARTICLE XV – DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Dissolution of this Association requires the passing of a Resolution of Resignation by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of all active members. The adopted resolution shall be sent by the Secretary of this Association by registered mail to the Executive Vice President of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional’s and shall become effective upon acceptance by the Board of Trustees. Upon acceptance of the Resolution of Resignation by the Board of Trustees, individual members of this Association shall become active members of the existing local association nearest them in their state, or members-at-large if no other association exists within their state.

Section 2. This Association, by taking the action to resign, shall surrender all rights to use the name, emblem, insignia, plate, sign, label or phrase indicative of membership in this Association.

Section 3. This Association’s charter with the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional’s may be suspended or revoked in accordance with appropriate sections of the bylaws of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional’s.

Section 4. This Association shall use funds only to accomplish the objectives and purposes specified in the bylaws and no part of said funds shall inure or be distributed to its members in the event this Association is dissolved or its charter revoked for cause in violation of the bylaws of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional’s. Immediately upon dissolution or revocation of its charter, this Association’s Board of Directors shall return all remaining Association funds to the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional’s for placement in escrow. Funds place in escrow will be distributed in accordance with the procedures outlined in the bylaws of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professional’s.
